Fan Behavior Policy

To all parents or guardians and coaches of children planning to participate in the upcoming recreation basketball season:

In the past few years we have come across some situations in the youth basketball program which has required the Bridgewater Recreation Department to implement the following zero-tolerance Fan Behavior Policy:

1. Spectators attending Bridgewater Recreation basketball games are not permitted to express negative comments of any kind to officials, coaches, players or Recreation staff. If you have a problem with a coach you are to discuss it with him or her when you drop-off or pick-up your child at practice during the week. If you have a problem with an administrator, you can call the Recreation Department and discuss it during the week. Input regarding the performance of officials will only be accepted from the Site Supervisor(s). Parents or guardians and coaches who wish to have an impact on officiating are invited to attend the eight (8) week referee certification course.
2. Any parent or guardian who does not follow the Fan Behavior Policy will be asked to leave the gym.
3. If necessary, the game will be stopped until removal from the gym is completed. In order to not inconvenience the teams that are scheduled to start the next game at a specific time, additional game time will not be added to make up for the delay.
4. A parent or guardian who does not exit the gym after being asked to by the Site Supervisor or official will be considered trespassing and the police will be summoned.

We hope that by calling your attention to this matter before the program begins will avoid any problems (and potential embarrassment) during the season. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation!
